

CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW OCTOBER 2013

BITCHES – We thoroughly enjoyed our day at West of England Cocker. I must thank my excellent stewards for their work & keeping things in order. I had some lovely bitches to go over.

I thought the partis eyes were a lot better since last time I judged. To me, Cockers should be well balanced with a lovely temperament with ever wagging tails. Most of my entry fitted this description.

AOC – P (3) 1 Whitehead's Ryallcourt Painted Lace, nice head, good neck & shoulders, short cobby body, moved well; 2 Nugent's Nulea Pollyanna, very nice type. Not quite as short as 1. Moved very well; 3 Hutson's Stobytill Eliza Doolittle. N (3) 1 Mitchell's Glowhill Miss Saigon, b/r, good body, neck & shoulders. Nice head & expression, moved well; 2 Duckworth's Squiretime Sariel, b/w, moved well. Would just like a bit more of her; 3 Pickford's Swanmarch Summer Sensation. G (5) 1 Lee & Hall's Evaremoc Buttons And Bows, nice Cockery medium blue, good bone, nice head, moved soundly; 2 Kew's Manchela Startime at Wyllyview, similar type, good neck & shoulders, good bone, moved well; 3 Greco's Cassom Bea Dazzled. O (6) 1 Fairbairn's Carmelfair Silver Bangle, I could only find one thing wrong with this bitch 'she's not mine'. She has a lovely head & expression, correct neck & shoulder placement, straight front with good bone & well padded catlike feet. Well muscled quarters which enabled her to move soundly & freely with an ever wagging tail. She was the star of the show. CC & BIS; 2 Master's Sh Ch Manchela Wild Willow, lovely head, sweet expression, good neck & shoulders, correct front, good bone to well padded feet, well ribbed, moved soundly & merrily; 3 Glennester & Nicholas-Steele's Kalriziennes Zeva Glentree. ANY SOLID – P(8) 1 Alderson's Karesmere Simply Delicious, lovely balanced black, pretty head & expression, good neck & shoulders, well boned legs to good feet, moved well; 2 West's Jazuebelle Black Magic, just a baby but is very promising.
